Please check off ALL events of interest to you and return it no later than Friday, September 23, 2022.

You will be contacted by the chairperson as the event gets closer to coordinate your volunteer role. These opportunities require only a few hours of your time, but your investment helps build a strong school community for both you and your child. We know your time is valuable and we appreciate your commitment to your child's educational experience.

Although the expectation is to volunteer for a minimum of one event, we can always use extra hands! Please indicate if you would be interested in participating in more than one event by checking here: ___ 😊 Thank you!
